

Al Zahra College

Uniform Requirements

Al Zahra College students are expected, at all times to wear correct school uniform and to demonstrate a high standard of personal grooming. The aim of our Uniform Policy is to foster a school culture that gives all students a sense of belonging and commitment to the school community. Wearing the uniform also promotes an exemplary image of our school to the community. A reminder that any students who are out of uniform must have a valid reason, and will need to provide a written explanation to their class teacher at the beginning of the school day (no more than three times). Parents and guardians will be contacted to collect students who are out of uniform without a valid reason. Students will need to change into their correct uniform and return to Al Zahra College.
